Daily Class Schedule

Our class will be streaming and starting by 9:30 Friday morning, March 9th.

For those who are attending:

Please arrive between 8:30 and 9:00 to check in, choose a seat and receive your handouts.

For those who are streaming:

Read the instructions on our streaming page very carefully so you can watch ad-free and avoid any difficulties. We suggest logging in at 9:00 EST.

Handouts: Your handouts will be placed in the handout section on the menu at the top of this page a couple of days before the start of class. Please print these out for yourself before class.

The Rest of the Weekend:

Class will go from 9:30 EST until between 4:30 and 5:00 Friday and Saturday. Sunday we will start at 8:30, ending between 3:30 and 4:00 so that students who need to travel home can get home early enough (this is primarily for the New York, Boston, Maine and Northern Vermont folks) We will break one time in the morning and one time in the evening for 10 minutes and somewhere near noon for an hour for lunch.
